UNDERSTANDING YOUR HEALTH RECORD AND INFORMATION

Each time you are seen via telehealth services provided by FreedomX LLC., a record of your visit is made containing health and financial information.

Typically, this record contains information about your condition, the treatment we provide and payment for the treatment.

We may use and/or disclose this information to:

- plan your care and treatment
- communicate with other health professionals involved in your care
- document the care you receive
- educate health professionals
- provide information for medical research
- provide information to public health officials
- evaluate and improve the care we provide
- obtain payment for the care we provide

Understanding what is in your record and how your health information is used helps you to:

- ensure it is accurate
- better understand who may access your health information
- make more informed decisions when authorizing disclosure to others

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

The following categories describe the ways that we use and disclose health information. Not every use or disclosure in a category will be listed. However, all of the ways we are permitted to use and disclose information will fall into one of the following 3 categories.

1. FOR TREATMENT. We may use or disclose health information about you to provide you with medical treatment. We may disclose health information about you to our providers or other Facility personnel who are involved in your care at FreedomX LLC..

2. FOR PAYMENT. We may use and disclose health information about you so that the treatment and services you receive may be billed to you. For example, in order to be paid, we may use an itemized billing system that will identify what services and / or treatments were received.

3. FOR HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS.

We may use and disclose health information about you for our day-to-day health care operations. This is necessary to ensure that all patients receive quality care. For example, we may use health information for quality assessment and improvement activities and for developing and evaluating clinical protocols. We may also combine health information about many patients to help determine what additional services should be offered, what services should be discontinued, and whether certain new treatments/medication are effective.

OTHER ALLOWABLE USES OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

*Business Associates. There are some services provided in our Facility through contracts with business associates. Examples include subscribed electronic health record services, pharmacy services, billing services, and copy services we use when making copies of your health record. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information so that they can perform the job we've asked them to do and bill you or your third-party payer for services rendered. To protect your health information, however, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information.

*Providers. Services provided to you, as part of your care at FreedomX LLC., are offered by participants in one of our organized healthcare arrangements. These participants may include healthcare providers, the subscribed EHR, pharmacies providing medication, electronic payment services provider.

*Treatment Alternatives. We may use and disclose health information to tell you about possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

*Health-Related Benefits and Services and Reminders. We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

140 Del Orleans Ave., #759, Denham Springs, LA 70726

*As Required By Law. We will disclose health information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law.

*To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may use and disclose health information about you to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. We would do this only to help prevent the threat.

- Organ and Tissue Donation. If you are an organ donor, we may disclose health information to organizations that handle organ procurement to facilitate donation and transplantation.

*Military and Veterans. If you are a member of the armed forces, we may disclose health information about you when legally required by military authorities to do so. We may also disclose health information about foreign military personnel to the appropriate foreign military authority if legally required to do so. We will never offer to disclose any private health information regarding your treatment or medications to armed services personnel when not legally required to do so.

*Research. Under certain circumstances, we may use and disclose health information about you for research purposes. For example, a research project may involve comparing the health and recovery of all persons who received one medication to those who received another, for the same condition. All research projects, however, are subject to a special approval process. This process evaluates a proposed research project and its use of health information, trying to balance the research needs with the persons' need for privacy of their health information. Before we use or disclose health information for research, the project will have been approved through this research approval process.

*Reporting Federal and state laws may require or permit the Facility to disclose certain health information related to the following:

- Public Health Risks. We may disclose health information about you for public health purposes, including:

- Prevention or control of disease, injury or disability
  - Reporting births and deaths;
  - Reporting child abuse or neglect;
  - Reporting reactions to medications or problems with products;
  - Notifying people of recalls of products;
  - Notifying a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease;
  - Notifying the appropriate government authority if we believe a person/persons has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence.
- We will only make this disclosure if you agree or when required or authorized by law.

- Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These oversight activities may include audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.

140 Del Orleans Ave., #759, Denham Springs, LA 70726

- Judicial and Administrative Proceedings: If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may disclose health information about you in response to a court or administrative order. We may also disclose health information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process by someone else involved in the dispute, but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested.

- Reporting Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence: Notifying the appropriate government agency if we believe a person/persons has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence.

*Law Enforcement. We may disclose health information when requested by a law enforcement official:

- In response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process;

- To identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person;

- About you, the victim of a crime if, under certain limited circumstances, we are unable to obtain your agreement;

- About a death we believe may be the result of criminal conduct;

- About criminal conduct in relation to FreedomX LLC. services or medication misuse; and

- In emergency circumstances to report a crime; the location of the crime or victims; or the identity, description or location of the person who committed the crime.

* Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors. We may disclose medical information to a coroner or medical examiner when requested. This may be necessary to identify a deceased person or determine the cause of death. We may also disclose medical information to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties.

* National Security and Intelligence Activities. We may disclose health information about you to authorized federal officials for intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities when required or subpoenaed by law.

OTHER USES OF HEALTH INFORMATION

Other uses and disclosures of health information not covered by this Notice or the laws that apply to us will be made only with your written permission. If you provide us permission to use or disclose health information about you, you may revoke that permission, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your permission, we will no longer use or disclose health information about you for the reasons covered by your written authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission, and that we are required to retain our records of the care that we provided to you.

*YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

Although your health record is the property of the Facility, the information belongs to you. You have the following rights regarding your health information:

- Right to Inspect and Copy. With some exceptions, you have the right to review and copy your health information. You must submit your request in writing to Patientsuccess@freedomx.health. We may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request.
- Right to Amend. If you feel that health information in your record is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have this right for as long as the information is kept by or for the Facility. You must submit your request in writing to Patientsuccess@freedomx.health or by Fax: (225) 267-4819. In addition, you must provide a reason for your request. We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that: Was not created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment; Is not part of the health information kept by or for the Facility; or Is accurate and complete.
- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request an "accounting of disclosures". This is a list of certain disclosures we made of your health information, other than those made for purposes such as treatment, payment, or health care operations. You must submit your request in writing to Patientsuccess@freedomx.health. Your request must state a time period which may not be longer than six years from the date the request is submitted and may not include dates before May 01, 2026. Your request should indicate in what form you want the list (for example, on paper or electronically). The first list you request within a twelve-month period will be free. For additional lists, we may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.
- Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the health information we use or disclose about you. For example, you may request that we limit the health information we disclose to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care. You could ask that we not use or disclose information about a surgery you had to a family member or friend. While we are not required to agree to your request, we will make all efforts to comply and follow your wishes within reason unless the information is needed to provide you emergency treatment. You must submit your request in writing to Patientsuccess@freedomx.health. In your request, you must tell us (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit our use, disclosure or both; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply, for example, disclosures to your spouse.
- Right to Request Alternate Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a confidential manner or at a specific location. For example, you may ask that we only contact you via mail to a post office box. You must submit your request in writing to Patientsuccess@freedomx.health. We will not ask you the reason for your request. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted. We will accommodate all reasonable requests.
